

CHINESE DRIED IRRADIATED YEAST

Following the recent FSA press release about the distribution of Chinese dried irradiated yeast in the UK in breach of regulations, we have prepared this statement to allay any concerns of Savoury Flavours' customers.

- We buy two yeast ingredients from Overseal Natural Ingredients, the UK distributor of the Chinese yeast in question. We have contacted Overseal and established that neither of the two ingredients we buy contains, or has ever contained Chinese yeast.
- We buy a number of other yeast ingredients originating only from reputable European manufacturers based in Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Netherlands and France.
- All our suppliers are cleared through a detailed approval programme including a general requirement that no irradiated materials are supplied

We hope this statement reassures you about the products supplied by Savoury Flavours Ltd., but please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any query.
